The 7 Guiding Principles for Victoria's mental health and wellbeing system

The overarching vision for reform

The guiding principles are to be used as the foundation for developing the new Framework

A new Mental Health and Wellbeing Outcomes Framework to drive transformational system reform

Whole-of-system and whole-of-government input is needed to develop the new framework, including consumer & family/carer lived experience input.

A Mental Health and Wellbeing Promotion Office to lead a state-wide approach to mental health prevention and promotion through dedicated funding and a state-wide plan.

The State-wide Plan for the Promotion of Good Mental Health and Wellbeing and the Prevention of Mental Illness will align with the Framework & be
